The patent term adjustment to date is 0 days. If the issue fee is paid on the date that is three months after the mailing date of this notice and the patent issues on the Tuesday before the date that is 28 weeks (six and a half months) after the mailing date of this notice, the term adjustment will be 0 days.

If a continued prosecution application (CPA) was filed in the above-identified application, the filing date that determines patent term adjustment is the filing date of the most recent CPA.

Applicant will be able to obtain more detailed information by accessing the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system. (<http://pair.uspto.gov>)

Any questions regarding the patent term extension or adjustment determination should be directed to the Office of Patent Legal Administration at (703)305-1383.

Notice of Fee Increase on January 1, 2003

If a reply to a "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" is filed in the Office on or after January 1, 2003, then the amount due will be higher than that set forth in the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" since there will be an increase in fees effective on January 1, 2003. See Revision of Patent and Trademark Fees for Fiscal Year 2003; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 70847, 70849 (November 27, 2002).

The current fee schedule is accessible from: <http://www.uspto.gov/main/howtofees.htm>.

If the issue fee paid is the amount shown on the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due," but not the correct amount in view of the fee increase, a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee" will be mailed to applicant. In order to avoid processing delays associated with mailing of a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee," if the response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) due form is to be filed on or after January 1, 2003 (or mailed with a certificate of mailing on or after January 1, 2003), the issue fee paid should be the fee that is required at the time the fee is paid. If the issue fee was previously paid, and the response to the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" includes a request to apply a previously-paid issue fee to the issue fee now due, then the difference between the issue fee amount at the time the response is filed and the previously paid issue fee should be paid. See Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Section 1308.01 (Eighth Edition, August 2001).

Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because of drawing errors found under 37 CFR 1.84, or 37 CFR 1.152, see attached USPTO form 948. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1, 5, and 9 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The invention in the instant application for a method of detecting fractures in a fractured zone of the geological earth formation with steps of transmitting and receiving a plurality of seismic traces and with steps of using a first and second window and with the steps of generating a first and second frequency spectrum associated with the first and second portions and corresponding to the first and second windows with the steps of superimposing the first spectrum onto the second frequency spectrum, and with the steps of generating and defining a high and low frequency with the steps of defining a high and low frequency to determine the amplitude values, and with the steps from the plurality of signal amplitudes used to define a (t) time attribute by subtracting the ratio of frequencies F_a to F_b with the steps to derive and define the defined high frequency less the defined low frequency and provide for the plotting of the time attribute on a data map and assign a unique color to the time attribute for the fracture zone is not found in the cited art of record.

It is these limitations expressed in each of these claims and not found, taught or suggested in the prior art of record that makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
